+ ANTITRUST

Scott+Scott Attorneys at Law LLP represents investors, businesses, and consumers in price-fixing, bid-rigging, monopolization, and other restraints of trade cases on both a class-wide and individual basis. The firm's work for its clients helps ensure that markets remain free, open, and competitive.

Scott+Scott has been recognized by the American Antitrust Institute in receiving an Outstanding Antitrust Litigation Achievement in Private Law Practice award in 2018 and an honorable mention in 2014. The firm's success is reflected in the money recovered for its clients. The 2018 Antitrust Annual Report: Class Action Filings in Federal Court co-authored by the University of San Francisco School of Law and The Huntington National Bank found that from 2013 to 2018, Scott+Scott ranked second nationally in total value of settlements for antitrust class actions, recovering over $3.4 billion. Scott+Scott's dedicated team of antitrust partners have built one of the nation's top plaintiffs' firms for antitrust actions. Furthermore, Scott+Scott's opening of offices in Europe reflects its commitment and ability to pursue its clients' claims on a global basis. Scott+Scott stands ready to take on its clients' complex legal problems and prevail.

Representative actions in which Scott+Scott currently serves as a lead counsel include:

- In re: Foreign Exchange Benchmark Rates Antitrust Litig., No. 13-cv-7789 (S.D.N.Y.) (challenging price-fixing of foreign exchange rates (over $2.3 billion in final-approved settlements)); The largest antitrust settlement of 2018 according to the American Antitrust Institute;

Since its inception, Scott+Scott's securities and corporate governance litigation department has developed and maintained a reputation of excellence and integrity recognized by state and federal courts across the country.

N.Y.U. v. Ariel Fund Ltd., No. 603803/08, slip. op. at 9-10 (N.Y. Sup. Ct. Feb. 22, 2010):

"It is this Court's position that Scott+Scott did a superlative job in its representation, which substantially benefited Ariel...For the record, it should be noted that Scott+Scott has demonstrated a remarkable grasp and handling of the extraordinarily complex matters in this case. . . . They have possessed a knowledge of the issues presented and this knowledge has always been used to the benefit of all investors."

In re Priceline.com, Inc. Sec. Litig., No. 3:00-CV-01884(AVC), 2007 WL 2115592, at *5 (D. Conn. July 20, 2007):
"The quality of representation here is demonstrated, in part, by the result achieved for the class. Further, it has been this court's experience, throughout the ongoing litigation of this matter, that counsel have conducted themselves with the utmost professionalism and respect for the court and the judicial process."

Scott+Scott has been singularly successful in its shareholder derivative appellate practice, and as a result, has been instrumental in fashioning the standards in this area of law. Examples of this include:

- W.moreland Cty. Emp. Ret. Sys. v. Parkinson, No. 12-3342 (7th Cir. Aug. 16, 2013): the Seventh Circuit clarified the parameters of demand futility in those instances where a majority of directors of a corporation are alleged to have breached the fiduciary duty of loyalty by consciously disregarding positive law;
- Cottrell v. Duke, No. 12-3871 (8th Cir. Dec. 28, 2013): the Eighth Circuit, in a case of first impression, clarified that the Colorado River stay is virtually never appropriate where there are exclusive federal claims; and
- King v. Verifone Holdings, Inc., No. 330, 2010 (Del. Jan. 28, 2011): the Supreme Court of Delaware has clarified the availability of the Delaware Corporate Code §220 "books and records" demands to a shareholder whose original plenary action was dismissed without prejudice in a federal district court.

CIVIL RIGHTS LITIGATION

Scott+Scott has also successfully litigated cases to enforce its clients' civil rights.

In The Vulcan Society, Inc. v. The City of New York, No. 07-cv-2067 (E.D.N.Y.), Scott+Scott was part of a team of lawyers representing a class of black applicants who were denied or delayed employment as New York City firefighters due to decades of racial discriminatory conduct. The district court certified the class in a post-Walmart v. Dukes decision, granted summary judgment against the City on both intentional discrimination and disparate impact claims, and after trial ordered broad injunctive relief, including a new examination, revision of the application procedure, and continued monitoring by a court-appointed monitor for at least 10 years. The back pay and compensatory damage award will be determined in a subsequent ruling.

In Hohider v. United Parcel Services, Inc., No. 2:04-cv-00363 (W.D. Penn.), Scott+Scott obtained significant structural changes to UPS's Americans with Disabilities Act compliance policies and monetary awards for some individual employees in settlement of a ground-breaking case seeking nationwide class certification of UPS employees who were barred from reemployment after suffering injuries on the job.

(subsequently as an executive committee member after joining Scott+Scott) (up to $6.24 billion settlement); LiPuma v. American Express Co., No. 1:04-cv-20314 (S.D. Fla.) ($90 million settlement); and was one of the trial counsel in Schwartz v. Visa, No. 822505-0 (Alameda Cty. Super. Ct.) ($780 million plaintiff's judgment after six months of trial); and In re Disposable Contact Lens Antitrust Litig., MDL No. 1030 (M.D. Fla.) ($90 million settlement with final settlements occurring during trial). Mr. Burke was one of the original lawyers in the Wholesale Elec. Antitrust cases in California, which settled for over $1 billion.

Further, Mr. Burke was trial counsel in Ross v. Bank of America N.A., No. 05-cv-7116, MDL No. 1409 (S.D.N.Y.) and Ross v. American Express Co., No. 04-cv-5723, MDL No. 1409 (S.D.N.Y.). He was also co-lead counsel for indirect purchasers in In re Korean Air Lines Co., Ltd. Antitrust Litig., MDL No. 1891 (C.D. Cal.) ($86 million settlement), and In re Prudential Ins. Co. of America SGLI/VGLI Contract Litig., No. 11-md-2208 (D. Mass.) ($40 million settlement). Mr. Burke also investigated and filed the first complaint in In re Credit Default Swaps Antitrust Litig., 13-md-2476 (S.D.N.Y.).

Mr. Burke frequently lectures at professional conferences and CLEs on competition matters, including litigation surrounding financial benchmarks, class-barring arbitration clauses, the effects of Twombly in 12(b)(6) motions, and the increasing use of experts at class certification and trial. The American Antitrust Institute ("AAI") honored Christopher Burke and Scott+Scott Attorneys at Law with an Outstanding Antitrust Litigation Achievement in Private Law Practice award at their 2018 Antitrust Enforcement Awards for efforts in the ISDAfix litigation. In 2014, he was also recognized for his exemplary work in the Dahl v. Bain Capital Partners matter by the AAI and has regularly been designated as a Super Lawyer by Thomson Reuters.

Mr. Burke has also served as an Assistant Attorney General at the Wisconsin Department of Justice and has lectured on law-related topics, including constitutional law, law and politics, and civil rights at the State University of New York at Buffalo and at the University of Wisconsin. Mr. Burke's book, The Appearance of Equality: Racial Gerrymandering, Redistricting, and the Supreme Court (Greenwood, 1999), examines conflicts over voting rights and political representation within the competing rhetoric of communitarian and liberal strategies of justification.

ADMISSIONS

State of Connecticut; United States Court of Appeals: Second, Third, Ninth, and Eleventh Circuits; United States District Court: Southern District of New York, District of Connecticut, Northern District of Illinois, Eastern District of Wisconsin, and District of Colorado

EDUCATION

University of Washington School of Law (J.D., 2002); Dartmouth College (B.A., magna cum laude, 1994)

HIGHLIGHTS

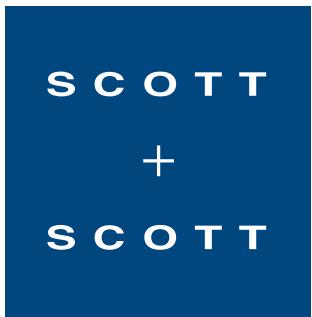

Ms. Comite is a partner in the firm's Connecticut office and currently serves in a leadership role in a number of complex class actions including: First Choice Federal Credit Union v. The Wendy's Company, No. 16-cv-00506 (W.D. Pa.), co-lead counsel on behalf of financial institutions arising out of data breach; In re Arby's Restaurant Group, Inc. Litig., No. 17-mi-55555 (N.D. Ga.), member of Plaintiffs' Executive Committee on behalf of financial institutions arising out of a data breach, In re Equifax, Inc. Customer Data Security Breach Litig., MDL No. 2800 (N.D. Ga.), chair of law and briefing committee; Forth v. Walgreen Co., Inc., No. 1:17-cv-02246 (N.D. Ill.), co-lead counsel, asserting claims on behalf of class of consumers alleging overcharge for medically necessary, covered prescription drugs; and Aquilina v. Certain Underwriters at Lloyd's London, No. 1:18-cv-00496 (D. Haw.), co-lead counsel, alleging that insurers, brokers, and agents improperly steered insureds into surplus lines insurance.

Recently, Ms. Comite has played a significant role in the prosecution of consumer class cases such as: In re The Home Depot, Inc., Customer Data Security Breach Litig., MDL No. 2583 (N.D. Ga.) ($27.25 million settlement) and In re Target Corporation Customer Data Security Breach Litig., MDL No. 2522 (D. Minn.) ($59 million settlement), two of the largest data breaches impacting consumer personal data to date; Greater Chautauqua Federal Credit Union v. Kmart Corp., No. 15-cv-02228 (N.D. Ill.), Chair of the Plaintiffs' Steering Committee ($8.1 million settlement); Morrow v. Ann, Inc., No. 1:16-cv-03340 (S.D.N.Y.) ($8.1 million settlement); Howerton v. Cargill, Inc., No. 13-cv-00336 (D. Haw.) ($6.1 settlement); Murr v. Capital One Bank (USA), N.A., No. 13-cv-1091 (E.D. Va.) ($7.3 million settlement); and In re Nutella Mktg. & Sales Practices Litig., No. 11-cv-01086 (D.N.J.) ($2.5 million settlement).

Ms. Comite's appellate victories in consumer class actions include Nunes v. Saks Inc., 2019 WL 2305039 (9th Cir. May 30, 2019); Chavez v. Nestle USA, Inc., 511 F. App'x 606 (9th Cir. 2013) (achieving a reversal of dismissal); and In re Nutella Mktg. & Sales Practices Litig., 589 F. App'x 53 (3d Cir. 2014) (defending settlement from professional objectors).

Since joining Scott+Scott in 2002, she has litigated such cases as In re Priceline.com Securities Litigation ($80 million settlement); Schnall v. Annuity and Life Re (Holdings) Ltd. ($27 million settlement); and In re Qwest Communications International, Inc. (settlement obtaining $25 million for the company and achieving corporate governance reforms aimed at ensuring board independence).

While Ms. Comite is experienced in all aspects of complex pre-trial litigation, she is particularly accomplished in achieving favorable results in discovery disputes. In Hohider v. United Parcel Service, Inc., Ms. Comite spearheaded a nearly year-long investigation into every facet of UPS's preservation methods, requiring intensive, full-time efforts by a team of attorneys and paralegals well beyond that required in the normal course of pre-trial litigation. Ms. Comite assisted in devising the plan of investigation in weekly conference calls with the Special Master, coordinated the review of over 30,000 documents that uncovered a blatant trail of deception and prepared dozens of briefs to describe the spoliation and its ramifications on the case to the Special Master. In reaction to UPS's flagrant discovery abuses brought to light through the investigation, the Court conditioned the parties' settlement of the three individual ADA cases on UPS adopting and implementing preservation practices that passed the approval of the Special Master.

Prior to entering law school, Ms. Comite served in the White House as Assistant to the Special Counsel to President Clinton. In that capacity, she handled matters related to the White House's response to investigations, including four independent counsel investigations, a Justice Department task force investigation, two major oversight investigations by the House of Representatives and the Senate, and several other congressional oversight investigations.

Ms. Comite's volunteer activities have included assisting immigrant women, as survivors of domestic violence, with temporary residency applications as well as counseling sexual assault survivors. Currently, Ms. Comite supports Connecticut Children's Medical Center and March of Dimes/March for Babies.

WILLIAM C. FREDERICKS

PRACTICE EMPHASIS

William Fredericks' practice focuses primarily on litigating securities and other complex commercial class actions.

ADMISSIONS

United States Supreme Court; United States Court of Appeals: First, Second, Third, Sixth, and Tenth Circuits;

United States District Court: Southern and Eastern Districts of New York, and Colorado

EDUCATION

Columbia University Law School, (J.D., 1988); University of Oxford (M. Litt. in International Relations, 1985);

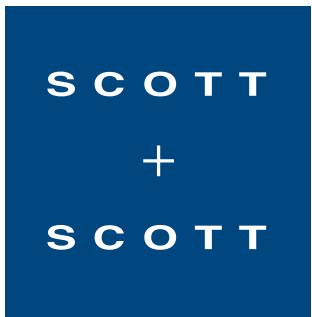

Swarthmore College (B.A. in Political Science, high honors, 1983)

HIGHLIGHTS

Mr. Fredericks is a partner in the firm's New York office. In addition to serving as lead counsel on behalf of investors in several pending securities fraud actions, he also represents investors in the pending FX antitrust litigation brought against over a dozen leading banks based on their involvement in manipulating foreign exchange ("FX") rates and spreads, and in pending proceedings relating to data security breaches at FaceBook, Inc.

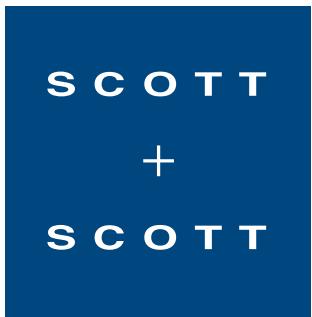

At Columbia Law School, Bill was a three-time Harlan Fiske Stone Scholar, a Columbia University International Fellow, Articles Editor of The Columbia Journal of Transnational Law, and winner of Columbia's Beck Prize (property law), Toppan Prize (advanced constitutional law) and Greenbaum Prize (written advocacy). A three-judge panel chaired by the late Justice Antonin Scalia also awarded him the Thomas E. Dewey Prize for best oral argument in the final round of Columbia's Stone Moot Court Honor Competition. After clerking for the Hon. Robert S. Gawthrop III (E.D. Pa.) in Philadelphia, Mr. Fredericks spent seven years practicing securities and complex commercial litigation at Simpson Thacher & Bartlett LLP and Willkie Farr & Gallagher LLP in New York before moving to the plaintiffs' side of the bar in 1996.

Mr. Fredericks has represented investors as a lead or co-lead counsel for plaintiffs in dozens of securities class actions, including In re Wachovia Preferred Securities and Bond/Notes Litig. (S.D.N.Y.) (total settlements of $627 million, reflecting the largest recovery ever in a pure Securities Act case not involving any parallel government fraud claims); In re Rite Aid Securities Litig. (E.D. Pa.) (total settlements of $323 million, including the then-second largest securities fraud settlement ever against a Big Four accounting firm); In re Sears Roebuck & Co. Sec. Litig. (N.D. Ill.) ($215 million settlement, representing the then-largest §10(b) class action recovery in an action that did not involve either a financial restatement or parallel government fraud claims); In re State Street Bank and Trust Co. ERISA Litig. (S.D.N.Y.) (one of the largest ERISA class settlements to date); In re King Digital Sec. Enter. PLC Shareholder Litig. (Super. Ct. San Fran. Cty.) ($18.5 million settlement, representing one of the largest state court §11 class action recoveries to date); and Irvine v. ImClone Systems, Inc. (S.D.N.Y.) ($75 million settlement). A consortium of plaintiffs' counsel also chose Mr. Fredericks to present the (successful) oral argument in opposition to defendants' efforts to dismiss (on grounds of standing) over fifteen separate securities fraud cases before a three judge panel in In re Mutual Fund Investing Litig. (see 519 F. Supp. 2d 580 (D.Md. 2007)), which later settled for a combined total of several hundred million dollars. Mr. Fredericks also played a leading role on the team that obtained a rare 9-0 decision for securities fraud plaintiffs in the U.S. Supreme Court in Merck & Co., Inc. v. Reynolds (which later settled for $1.052 billion), and he has also coauthored amicus briefs on behalf of clients in a number of other Supreme Court cases (including Halliburton, Amgen, ANZ Securities and Cyan) involving various significant securities law issues.

Mr. Fredericks has also represented clients in litigating claims in federal bankruptcy court proceedings, and has obtained substantial recoveries from a bankrupt corporation's officers, law firm and outside auditors on behalf of a court-appointed Trustee of a creditor's trust. See In re Friedman's, Inc., 394 B.R. 623 (S.D. Ga.2008). He also currently represents a putative class of large commercial customers of a bankrupt utility in breach of contract proceedings pending before the U.S. Bankruptcy Court for the Northern District of Ohio.

William Fredericks has been recognized in the 2012-19 editions of "America's Best Lawyers" in the field of commercial litigation, in "Who's Who in American Law" (Marquis), and in the New York City "SuperLawyers" listings for securities litigation (2013-19). He has been a frequent panelist on various securities litigation programs sponsored by the Practising Law Institute (PLI) – including ten years as a panelist on civil liabilities under the federal Securities Act – and has lectured overseas on American class action litigation on behalf of the American Law Institute/American Bar Association (ALI/ABA). He is also the former chairman of the New York City Bar Association's Committee on Military Affairs and Justice, and a member of the Federal Bar Council.

A lifelong resident and native of San Diego, Mr. Goldberger was an instituting member of the Torrey Pines High School "Friends of the Library" and coaches local youth sports in his spare time.

JOSEPH P. GUGLIELMO

PRACTICE EMPHASIS

Joseph P. Guglielmo represents institutional and individual clients in securities, antitrust, and consumer litigation in federal and state courts throughout the United States

ADMISSIONS

States of New York and Massachusetts; District of Columbia; United States Supreme Court; United States Court of Appeals: First, Second, Third, Eighth and Ninth Circuits; United States District Court: Southern and Eastern Districts of New York, Districts of Massachusetts, Connecticut, and Colorado, Northern district of Illinois, Eastern District of Wisconsin

EDUCATION

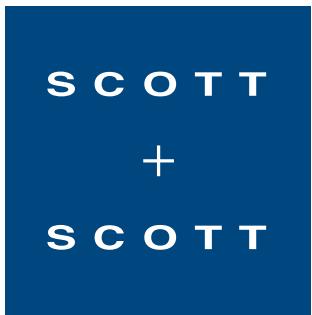

Catholic University of America (J.D., 1995; B.A., cum laude, 1992; Certificate of Public Policy)

HIGHLIGHTS

Mr. Guglielmo is a partner in the firm's New York office and was recognized for his efforts representing New York University in obtaining a monumental temporary restraining order of over $200 million from a Bernard Madoff feeder fund. Specifically, New York State Supreme Court Justice Richard B. Lowe III stated, "Scott+Scott has demonstrated a remarkable grasp and handling of the extraordinarily complex matters in this case. The extremely professional and thorough means by which NYU's counsel has litigated this matter has not been overlooked by this Court."

Mr. Guglielmo serves in a leadership capacity in a number of complex antitrust and consumer actions, including: In Equifax, Inc. Customer Data Security Breach Litig., No. 1:17-md-2800 (N.D. Ga.), co-lead counsel, claims on behalf of financial institutions involving data breach of personal and financial information of approximately 150 million consumers, In Re: American Airlines Federal Credit Union v Sonic Corp., Case No., CIV-19-208G (N.D. Ohio.), Plaintiffs' Executive Committee, claims on behalf of financial institutions involving data breach of financial information of approximately five million consumers and Arkansas Federal Credit Union v. Hudson Bay, 1:19-cv-4492-PKC (S.D.N.Y.), Lead Counsel, claims on behalf of financial institutions arising of data breach involving over five million payment cards. In Re: Disposable Contact Lens Antitrust Litig., No. 3:15-md-2626 (M.D. Fla.), co-lead counsel, claims on behalf of a class of contact lens purchasers alleging violations of the antitrust laws, Forth v. Walgreen Co., Inc., No. 1:17-cv-02246 (N.D. Ill.), lead counsel, asserting claims on behalf of class of consumers alleging overcharge for medically necessary, covered prescription drugs. Mr. Guglielmo is also actively involved in In re Foreign Exchange Benchmark Rates Antitrust Litig., No. 1:13-cv-07789-LGS (S.D.N.Y), which involves claims on behalf of purchasers of foreign exchange instruments alleging violations of federal antitrust laws.

Mr. Guglielmo has achieved significant victories and obtained numerous settlements for his clients. Mr. Guglielmo was co-lead counsel in In re The Home Depot, Inc., Customer Data Security Breach Litig., MDL No. 2583 (N.D. Ga.), where a $27.25 million settlement was obtained on behalf of financial institutions involving a data breach and the theft of the personal and financial information of over 40 million credit and debit card holders. Mr. Guglielmo is counsel in First Choice Federal Credit Union v. The Wendy's Company, No. 16-cv-00506 (W.D. Pa.), where a $50 million settlement was obtained. He is also co-lead counsel in Veridian Credit Union v. Eddie Bauer LLC, Case No. 2:17-CV-00356-JLR (W.D. Wa.), where a settlement valued at approximately $9.8 million was recently obtained. Previously, Mr. Guglielmo also a member of the Plaintiffs' Steering Committee in In re Target Corporation Customer Data Security Breach Litig., MDL No. 2522 (D. Minn.), where a $59 million settlement was obtained on behalf of financial institutions involving data breach of personal and financial information of approximately 110 million credit and debit cardholders. Mr. Guglielmo was also lead counsel in Winsouth Credit Union v. Mapco Express Inc., No.: 3:14-cv-1573 (M.D. Tenn.), which achieved the largest dollar-per-card recovery on behalf of financial institutions involving data breach of credit and debit card information. Mr. Guglielmo was one of the principals involved in the litigation and settlement of In re Managed Care Litig., MDL No. 1334 (S.D. Fla.), which included settlements with Aetna, CIGNA, Prudential, Health Net, Humana, and WellPoint, providing monetary and injunctive benefits exceeding $1 billion.

Additional cases Mr. Guglielmo played a leading role and obtained substantial recoveries for his clients include: Love v. Blue Cross and Blue Shield Ass'n, No. 03-cv-21296 (S.D. Fla.), which resulted in settlements of approximately $130 million and injunctive benefits valued in excess of $2 billion; In re Insurance Brokerage Antitrust Litig., MDL No. 1897 (D.N.J.), settlements in excess of $180 million; Valle v. Popular Community Bank, No. 653936/2012 (N.Y. Supreme Ct.), $5.2 million settlement on behalf of consumers, In re Pre-Filled Propane Tank Marketing and Sales Practices Litig., MDL No. 2086 (W.D. Mo.), consumer settlements in excess of $40 million; Bassman v. Union Pacific Corp., No. 97-cv-02819 (N.D. Tex.), $35.5 million securities class action settlement; Garcia v. Carrion, No. CV. 11-1801 (D. P.R.), substantial corporate governance reforms; Boilermakers National Annuity Trust Fund v. WaMu Mortgage Pass-Through Certificates, No. 09-cv-00037 (W.D. Wash.), $26 million securities class action settlement, Murr v. Capital One Bank (USA), N.A., No. 13-cv-1091 (E.D. Va.), $7.3 million settlement pending on behalf of class of consumers who were misled into accepting purportedly 0% interest offers, and Howerton v. Cargill, Inc., No. 13-cv-00336 (D. Haw.), $6.1 million settlement obtained on behalf of class of consumers who purchased Truvia, purported to be deceptively marketed as "all-natural." Mr. Guglielmo was the principle litigator and obtained a significant opinion from the Hawaii Supreme Court in Hawaii Medical Association v. Hawaii Medical Service Association, 113 Hawaii 77 (Haw. 2006), reversing the trial court's dismissal and clarifying rights for consumers under the state's unfair competition law.

Mr. Guglielmo lectures on electronic discovery and was a member of the Steering Committee of Working Group 1 of the Sedona Conference®, an organization devoted to providing guidance and information concerning issues such as discovery and production issues, as well as areas focusing on antitrust law, complex litigation, and intellectual property. He is a frequent speaker on electronic discovery issues at the Sedona Conference as well as the Advanced eDiscovery Institute at Georgetown University Law Center. Mr. Guglielmo was also recognized for his achievements in litigation by his selection to The National Law Journal's "Plaintiffs' Hot List." In 2019, Mr. Guglielmo was recognized by Super Lawyers as a top Antitrust lawyer in the New York metro area, was named by Who's Who Legal Litigation: Leading Practitioner-E-Discovery (2019), and was named by Lawdragon as one of the 500 Leading Plaintiff Financial Lawyers.

Mr. Guglielmo is also a member of the following associations: District of Columbia Bar Association, New York State Bar Association, American Bar Association, The Sedona Conference®, and a Board Member on the Advanced eDiscovery Institute at Georgetown University Law Center.

JAMES HAIN-COLE

PRACTICE EMPHASIS

James Hain-Cole specialises in competition damages litigation and has extensive international experience advising on multijurisdictional antitrust matters.

ADMISSIONS

England and Wales

EDUCATION

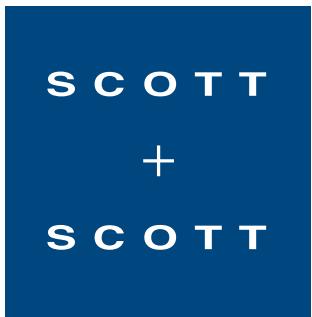

De Montfort University (BASL DMU Postgraduate Certificate in Sports Law, Merit, 2015); BPP Law School (Graduate Diploma in Law, 2008 and Legal Practice Course, 2009) University of St. Andrews (MA Modern History and International Relations, First Class Honours, 2006)

HIGHLIGHTS

Mr. Hain-Cole is located in Scott+Scott's London office and works with the firm's Antitrust and Competition Practice in advising international clients on their potential to claim damages arising from anticompetitive conduct and working with them to design an effective strategy to compensate them for losses arising from such conduct. He also has experience in commercial arbitration and general commercial litigation.

Prior to working with Scott+Scott, Mr. Hain-Cole spent two and a half years at Cuatrecasas in Madrid, where he advised on competition damages claims before the courts of Spain, England and Italy and also formed part of the team that drafted the legal section of the Study on the Passing-on of Overcharges for the European Commission. Prior to that, Mr. Hain-Cole spent six years in the London office of Freshfields Bruckhaus Deringer LLP, where he advised clients in some of the leading competition damages before the English courts and tribunals, including Deutsche Bahn AG and others v Morgan Advanced Materials Plc and Cooper Tire and Rubber Company Europe Ltd and others v. Dow Deutschland Inc and others. He also acted for a major financial institution in competition law investigations before the European Commission and other competition regulators worldwide, including in the North America and Asia.

James also has professional proficiency in Spanish.

BELINDA HOLLOWAY

PRACTICE EMPHASIS

Belinda Hollway has over 15 years of competition law experience, and specialises in competition damages litigation.

ADMISSIONS

English High Court; Competition Appeal Tribunal; Court of Appeal
Admitted to practice in England and Wales and in New South Wales, Australia

EDUCATION

Australian National University (First-class Honours: History, First-class Honours and University Medal: Law, 2001);
Kings College London (Masters in Competition Law, 2008)

HIGHLIGHTS

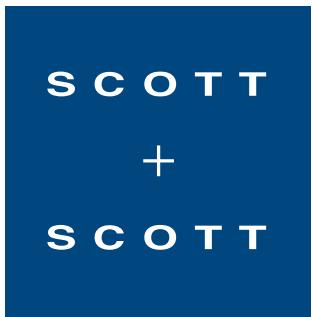

Ms. Hollway is the head of Scott+Scott Europe LLP's London office and has extensive expertise in developing and coordinating multijurisdictional litigation strategies, both within Europe and beyond. She is currently acting for UK and multinational businesses in claims against Mastercard and Visa in relation to interchange fees. She is also acting for clients seeking to recoup losses suffered as a result of the manipulation by leading banks of the foreign exchange market.

Prior to joining Scott+Scott, Belinda spent nine years in the London office of Freshfields Bruckhaus Deringer LLP. She represented clients across a wide range of industries, acting in many of the leading English competition damages cases, such as Cooper Tire, relating to the synthetic rubber cartel, and National Grid v. ABB, relating to the cartel in gas insulated switchgear. She was the lead associate on the defence team in Enron v. EWS, which was the first follow-on damages claim ever to reach trial in the Competition Appeal Tribunal. Her wide experience on the defence side gives her a special insight into the issues that claimants must address and overcome in order to recoup losses stemming from breaches of competition law in Europe.

Belinda has also acted for numerous clients in competition law investigations, both internal investigations and those brought by the UK Office of Fair Trading (now the Competition and Markets Authority) and the European Commission. She has been involved in immunity applications, Commission cartel settlements, and contested cases. From this work, she has an in-depth understanding of the interaction between private and public enforcement in Europe and the ramifications that public enforcement has for the strategy and progression of damages claims.

After law school Belinda spent a year as an Associate to Her Honour Justice Catherine Branson at the Federal Court of Australia and then worked for the competition and litigation teams of Allens Arthur Robinson in Sydney, prior to moving to the United Kingdom in 2006.

She has published on competition law issues, including in relation to the EU Damages Directive and has been quoted in the press on competition law in Europe. She is regularly invited to speak at conferences and competition litigation issues.

DAVID HOWE

PRACTICE EMPHASIS

David Howe is a competition, EU, and public lawyer.

ADMISSIONS

England and Wales

EDUCATION

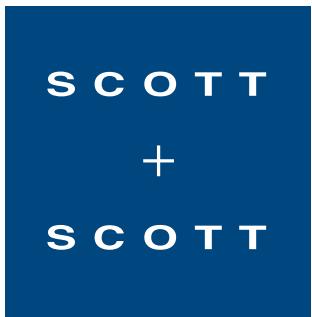

Kings College London (LL.M in European Law, 2009); University of Oxford (BCL, 2005 with distinction; Law and French Law, 2003 - First Class Honours - top 3%)

HIGHLIGHTS

Mr. Howe is a senior consultant for Scott+Scott Europe LLP. He trained at Freshfields Bruckhaus Deringer LLP and, after qualification, spent a further eight years in the competition and dispute resolution teams there.

David has acted for a range of multinational clients on the full spectrum of competition investigations (UK and internationally) litigation and advice. He has conducted competition damages claims in the English High Court, Court of Appeal and Competition Appeal Tribunal, and also appeared in the European Court of Justice. He acted for Roche on its defence of litigation arising out of the Vitamins cartel (including in the Devenish litigation, which ruled on the availability of restitutory and exemplary damages in follow-on claims) and, for EWS in its defence of claims brought by the administrators of Enron for damage following EWS' abuse of dominance (the first follow-on damages action to go to trial in the Competition Appeal Tribunal). More recently, he has acted for several retailers with claims against Visa and Mastercard in relation to the imposition of interchange fees. He also has a working knowledge of the collective action regime under the Consumer Rights Act 2015 and experience working with third party funders. He has published several articles on competition law.

David also has significant wider expertise, including in bribery, public and regulatory law, and human rights matters. For instance, he was the lead associate co-ordinating a multi-jurisdictional regulatory and public law strategy for a major consumer products company, and has acted on a number of judicial reviews for a range of clients, including (as lead associate) on a significant judicial review of the lawfulness of domestic consumer products legislation, relying primarily on EU free movement and human rights grounds. In addition to "classic" human rights claims, David also has expertise in the evolving body of hard and soft law arising out of the UN "Ruggie Principles" on Business and Human Rights, having assisted a major technology company on a full Ruggie-compliant assessment of, and mitigation strategy for, a new project.

HIGHLIGHTS

Ms. Lawrence is a partner in our Connecticut office. In the antitrust realm, Ms. Lawrence currently serves as co-lead counsel in the matter, In re: GSE Bonds Antitrust Litigation, 1:19-cv-01704-JSR (S.D.N.Y.) which alleges manipulation of the prices in the $550 billion government sponsored entities bond market. Ms. Lawrence was also intricately involved in the "ISDAFix case" – Alaska Electrical Pension Fund v. Bank of America, 1:14-cv-07126-JMF-OTW (S.D.N.Y), taking depositions and working through expert discovery, including numerous Daubert motions and responses. That case has to date achieved over $504.5 million in recovery from large financial institutions for investors. She likewise has managed complex international investigations into suspected collusion or manipulation of financial markets. For example, she devoted herself to the international investigation of SSA bonds, which included multiple interviews with former managers of trading banks as well as extensive work with New York University professors to analyze trading data and unearth manipulation.

In her securities practice, Ms. Lawrence has worked on numerous Exchange Act and 1933 Act cases that have resulted in substantial settlements, including: Police and Fire Retirement System of the City of Detroit v. Crane, No. 13-cv-00945-VC (N.D. Cal.) ($5.1 million settlement); Rosenberg v. Cliffs Natural Resources, Inc., No. CV-14-828140 (Ohio Com. Pleas) ($10 million settlement in 1933 Act case); Rubenstein v. Oilsands Quest Inc., No. 11-1288 (S.D.N.Y.) (securities settlement of $10.235 million); Boilermakers National Annuity Trust Fund v. WaMu Mortgage Pass-Through Certificates, No. 09-cv-00037 (W.D. Wash.) ($26 million securities class action settlement); In re TETRA Technologies, Inc. Securities Litig., No. 07-cv-00965 (S.D. Tex.) ($8.25 million securities class action settlement); In re LendingClub Corporation Shareholder Litig., No. CIV 537300 (Cal. Super., San Mateo) ($125 million securities class action settlement); and In Re: FireEye, Inc. Securities Litig., No. 1-14-cv-066866 (Cal. Super., Santa Clara) ($10.25 million securities class action settlement).

In addition to antitrust and securities matters, Ms. Lawrence has also worked on consumer cases that have resulted in significant settlements for the affected classes. For example, Ms. Lawrence helped achieve a settlement in the The Vulcan Society, Inc. v. The City of New York, No. 07-CV-2067 (E.D.N.Y.) that brought both monetary and injunctive relief to a class of African American and Hispanic firefighters in New York City, as well as a settlement in In re Prudential Insurance Company of America SGLI/VGLI Contract Litig., No. 3:11-md-02208-MAP (D. Mass.) that brought both forms of relief to relatives of deceased servicemen and women.

DAVID R. SCOTT

PRACTICE EMPHASIS

Managing Partner David R. Scott represents multinational corporations, hedge funds, and institutional investors in high-stakes, complex litigation, including antitrust, commercial, and securities actions.

ADMISSIONS

States of New York, Pennsylvania and Connecticut; United States Court of Appeals: Second, Third, and Fifth Circuits; United States District Court: Southern District of New York, Connecticut, Eastern District of Pennsylvania, Northern and Southern Districts of Texas, and Colorado; United States Tax Court

EDUCATION

New York University School of Law (LL.M. in taxation); Temple University School of Law (J.D., Moot Court Board, 1989)
St. Lawrence University (B.A., cum laude, 1986)

HIGHLIGHTS

Mr. Scott is the Managing Partner of Scott+Scott Attorneys at Law LLP, Scott+Scott Europe LLP, and Scott+Scott Europe BV with offices in New York, Amsterdam, London, California, Connecticut, and Ohio.

In addition to managing the firm's lawyers worldwide, Mr. Scott advises some of the world's largest multinational corporations in cartel damages and other complex matters. He has been retained to design corporate policies for the global recoupment of losses, and transatlantic private enforcement programs.

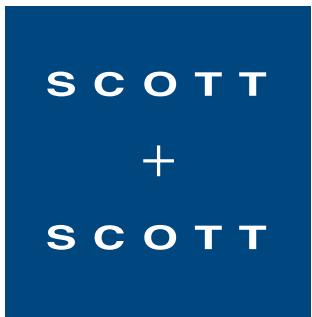

He currently represents multinational companies and hedge funds in cases involving, among other things, price-fixing in the trucks, foreign exchange, high voltage power cables, cardboard, and payment card sectors.

Mr. Scott's antitrust cases in the United States have resulted in significant recoveries for victims of price-fixing cartels. Among other cases, Mr. Scott served as co-lead counsel in Dahl v Bain Capital Partners, No. 1:07-cv-12388 (D. Mass.), an action alleging that the largest private equity firms in the United States colluded to suppress prices that shareholders received in leveraged buyouts and that the defendants recently agreed to settle for $590.5 million. He was lead counsel in Red Lion Medical Safety v. Ohmeda, No. 06-cv-1010 (E.D. Cal.), a lawsuit alleging that Ohmeda, one of the leading manufacturers of medical anesthesia equipment in the United States, excluded independent service organizations from the market for servicing its equipment. The case was successfully resolved in settlement negotiations before trial.

Mr. Scott has received widespread recognition for his antitrust and competition law work. He has been elected to Who's Who Legal: Competition 2015- 2019, which lists the world's top antitrust and competition law lawyers, selected based on comprehensive, independent survey work with both general counsel and lawyers in private practice around the world. He has also received a highly recommended ranking by Benchmark Litigation for each of the years 2013-2015.

In addition to his extensive competition law work, Mr. Scott has also taken the lead in bringing claims on behalf of institutional investors, such as sovereign wealth funds, corporate pension schemes, and public employee retirement funds. For example, he has been retained to pursue losses against mortgaged-backed securities trustees for failing to protect investors. He also represented a consortium of regional banks in litigation relating to toxic auction rate securities ("ARS") and obtained a sizable recovery for the banks in a confidential settlement. This case represents one of the few ARS cases in the country to be successfully resolved in favor of the plaintiffs.

Mr. Scott is frequently quoted in the press, including in publications such as The Financial Times, The Guardian, The Daily Telegraph, The Wall Street Journal, and Law360. He is regularly invited to speak at conferences around the world and before Boards of Directors and trustees responsible for managing institutional investments.

Ms. Sokol currently represents and advises her clients in cases involving anticompetitive conduct in the trucks, high voltage power cables, payment card, and foreign exchange sectors. In addition, Ms. Sokol's civil litigation experience has involved defending corporate clients charged with unlawful business practices and monopolizations. She has also represented clients in criminal and extradition matters.

Ms. Sokol has repeatedly been selected for the International Who's Who of Competition Lawyers & Economists and for Competition - U.S. in 2016-2019. Honorees are selected based on comprehensive and independent survey responses received from general counsel and private practitioners around the world. She has been selected to be a Fellow in The Trial Lawyer Honorary Society of the Litigation Counsel of America, which is a trial lawyer honorary society composed of less than one-half of one percent of American lawyers. Lawyer Monthly magazine awarded her the Women in Law Award 2017. She has also been named a "Super Lawyer" in 2011- 2019.

After law school, Sylvia was awarded the Soros Justice Fellowship to serve a year in the Capital Habeas Unit of the Federal Public Defender's Office, where she represented clients condemned to death and developed training materials for members of the capital defense bar. She then served as a judicial law clerk to the Honorable Warren J. Ferguson, United States Court of Appeals for the Ninth Circuit, before spending several years working at Morrison & Foerster LLP.

Ms. Sokol is bilingual in English and French, and holds French and United States citizenships.
